Summary of reasons for decision:

The image is deemed objectionable because it promotes and supports the exploitation of children for sexual purposes. The image presents a series of still that explicitly depict a man performing a sexual act on a child. It is a record of sexual abuse and presents children as available for adult sexual use. The objectionable classification interferes with the right to freedom of expression set out in the New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990. However, this is an outcome that is consistent with Parliament's intention and reflects the concern of a free and democratic society to protect its young and vulnerable members from sexual exploitation.
